Article I. General

1.01 Name

- (a) The name of the association is the Commerce Students' Association (the "CSA").

1.02 Application

- (a) This Constitution shall apply to all members of the CSA as defined herein, and all proceedings, rulings, and remedies defined under and taken pursuant to this Constitution shall be exhaustive.

1.03 Jurisdiction

- (a) The CSA is a self-governing body in respect of all proceedings, resolutions, executive decisions, rulings, and appeals taken and administered pursuant to the authority of this Constitution. This Constitution shall bind and govern all members of the association with no organization sitting as an appellate body to the CSA.

1.04 Mission and Vision

- (a) Mission: We strive to enrich the undergraduate student experience at the I.H. Asper School of Business through unique events and professional development opportunities that foster meaningful relationships with the greater business community.
- (b) Vision: Our vision is to continually engage CSA Members to enhance their Asper School of Business Bachelor of Commerce (Hons.) degree experience.

1.05 Membership

- (a) Every registered undergraduate I.H. Asper School of Business student who is in good standing is a member of the CSA (a "CSA Member").
- (b) The CSA, from time to time, by a motion passed at a duly convened CSA General Council meeting, may extend to any position or person the privilege of honorary membership.
- (c) If a student is no longer a registered student of the I.H. Asper School of Business, they shall no longer be a member of the CSA. If a member loses their Good Standing with the I.H. Asper School of Business, this can also be grounds for a motion passed at a duly convened CSA General Council meeting to exclude someone from membership.
- (d) All CSA Members are considered to be in good standing unless the undergraduate program office has indicated otherwise for reasons such as academic probations, misconduct, suspensions, or unpaid fees.

- (b) Completed nominations, containing all material required by the Constitution and the CRO must be received no later than the deadline set out in the advertisement by the CRO.
- (c) Nominations may be collected by individuals on behalf of the nominees, provided the individual collecting the nominations is also a CSA Member.

- (d) It is the sole responsibility of nominees to ensure the completeness and accuracy of their nominations. Any nomination that fails to comply with any part of the rules shall be summarily rejected.
- (e) Within 24 hours of the closing of nominations, a member of the CSA Elections Committee will inform the CSA Executive Council, CSA General Council, STAG's, and all other CSA Members of the list of eligible candidates.
- (f) Members of the CSA Executive Council may run as candidates in the CSA Election, provided they meet all other criteria required of any other nominated candidate.
- (g) Candidates for the elected position of First Year Representative (2 Positions) shall be considered eligible if they meet the following qualifications at the time of nomination:
 - (i) Recognized as a New-to-Asper School of Business Student, and
 - (ii) Enrolled in classes during the current fall and upcoming winter semesters as a full time or part time student.

8.10 Nomination Vacancies

- (a) If an open position receives no nominations by the deadline for nominations, the position will not be elected in the current round of elections.
- (b) At a later date to be determined by the CSA Elections Committee, a second round of elections will be held to attempt to nominate and elect a candidate for the vacant position. The election timeline may be compressed at the joint discretion of the CSA President and CRO.
- (c) Should a position receive no nominations in the second round of elections, the Elections Committee may determine the best course of action to elect the position in the future.
- (d) If after the call for a second round of voting there are no nominations submitted, the CSA President and/or VPI shall appoint the position in consultation with the remaining CSA Executive Council Members and CSA Faculty Advisor.

8.11 Slates

- (a) No candidates may run in slates. All candidates must run individually and cannot coordinate campaigns or marketing material.
- (b) Candidates found to be collaborating on their campaigns will be disqualified from the election.

8.12 Candidate Meetings

- (a) All candidates and their campaign managers, if applicable, must be present at any and all meetings called by the CRO.
- (b) Candidates who are unable to attend a meeting scheduled by the CRO are deemed ineligible unless they submit written notice within three hours of the start of the meeting and provide a proxy to attend in their place.
- (c) Candidates who send a proxy representative are deemed to have been in attendance for informational purposes, and as such, no special consideration will be given for violations of rules discussed at meetings which a candidate did not themselves attend.

- (d) Immediately following the close of the nomination period, the CRO shall call an informational meeting (the “All Candidates Meeting”) which all candidates must attend to:
 - (i) Review the relevant governing documents and respond to questions about the same.
 - (ii) Announce any methods that shall be regularly used to communicate with campaigns.
 - (iii) Deal with any other topics deemed necessary by the CRO.
 - (iii) Attendance must be taken at the All Candidates Meeting.

8.13 Office Space and Resources

- (a) The CSA will not provide office or storage space to any candidates. No campaign shall have an office on campus which is not approved by the CRO.
- (b) At no time during the Election Period may campaign supplies or materials be present or stored in the CSA Office.
- (c) Campaigning may not be conducted within the CSA Office by any candidate, nor a representative of that candidate at any time during the election period.
- (d) Candidates may not use any CSA resources for campaign purposes, including printing resources, marketing software, or other items as determined by the CRO.
- (e) Candidates, including current CSA General Council or CSA Executive Council Members, may access the CSA Office space at any time during the election period, provided no campaigning is carried out within the space, and all campaign materials are left outside.
- (f) Notwithstanding 8.13 (e), candidates who are current CSA Executive Council Members may have additional privileges or access to CSA property are restricted in order to ensure a fair and democratic election at the sole discretion of the CRO.

- (vi) Bear any logo representing any student group or organization including but not limited to UMSU, the Asper School of Business, the CSA, or any STAG.
 - (vii) Notwithstanding section 8.15 (a) (i)-(vi), all campaign materials must be presented in a manner befitting the Asper School of Business. If any of the CRO, DRO, Elections Committee, or Faculty Advisor feel that any piece of material is found to be questionable (inappropriate), it can be referred to the CRO, who may remove it without warning. The candidate will not be allowed to replace it with new material.
- (b) The only physical campaign materials allowed include those listed below and may convey a candidate's name, image, and/or platform:
- (i) Pamphlets
 - (ii) Brochures
 - (iii) Leaflets
 - (iv) Cards
- (c) All campaign material must also clearly indicate the date and time of the voting period as well as the electronic voting web address, if applicable, in legible format.
- (d) Any quantity of handheld materials such as pamphlets, leaflets, brochures, and cards may be produced. Such materials cannot be left on tables or other similar locations throughout the school; they must be distributed directly to individuals.
- (e) The CRO or DRO must approve all campaign materials. The CRO may establish a method for seeking approval of printed content in advance of the All Candidates Meeting to allow sufficient time for production of the materials with the affixed approval watermark. If a candidate has new material that he or she would like to distribute at a later date, it must be reviewed and approved by the CRO or DRO before it may be distributed. If seeking approval on printed material, a candidate may photocopy the approved piece of material once signed by the CRO or DRO.
- (f) Under no circumstances will stickers / adhesives be allowed for use as campaign material.
- (g) Distribution of campaign material into lockers is strictly prohibited.
- (h) No campaigning is permitted through internal University / Faculty / CSA / STAG mailing lists or group chats.
- (i) Social media (including but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, etc.) may be used; however, all social media profiles must be made public and no private group on any form of social media may be used (including but not limited to a private Facebook group or event, for example). If a candidate's personal social media profile is used for campaigning purposes, they are also required to be made public for the duration of the campaign and election period.
- (j) A website may be created but must be made public. This will be treated like another social media account and won't be counted towards your five campaign materials.
- (k) All campaign materials, both print, digital and on social media must be removed from public view within 24 hours of the conclusion of voting.

8.16 Campaign Expenses

- (a) A campaign expense is defined as a cost incurred to create campaigning material for the purpose of the respective election.

- (b) Campaign materials may not exceed the campaign budget specified by the CRO, who will determine the budget at the start of each election period.
- (c) The CSA will reimburse all President, Vice President Internal, and Advocacy Representative candidates for campaign expenses up to $100, with receipts. Any additional expenses within the budget are the personal responsibility of the candidate.
- (d) The CSA will reimburse all First Year Representative candidates for campaign expenses up to $50, with receipts. Any additional expenses within the budget are the personal responsibility of the candidate.
- (e) Receipts must be obtained by candidates before campaign materials are distributed.
- (f) All receipts must be submitted to the CRO at or prior to the Election Results Meeting.
- (g) All materials used in the making and distribution of campaign material must be assessed a value. This includes, but is not limited to: paper, printing, markers, pens, tape, etc.
- (h) If no receipts are available, a value will be placed on the materials used based on the best judgment of the CRO and DRO.

8.17 Campaigning Rules

- (a) Campaigning whereby candidates or volunteers on their behalf approach individuals in-person to market themselves or remind others about an election in any way ("In-Person Campaigning"), may only be conducted within the Drake Centre.
- (b) In-Person Campaigning may not be conducted within the Albert D. Cohen Management Library located on the 200 level of the Drake Centre or the Sony Study Centre located on the 300 level of the Drake Centre.
- (c) In-Person Campaigning may only be conducted during the established Campaign Period. Online campaigning using social media and other online methods may continue through until close of the Voting Period.
- (d) Candidates may receive volunteer assistance from any other persons, so long as there is no exchange of money or other benefits offered. Volunteers may not actively campaign for more than one candidate in any combination of portfolios.
- (e) Volunteers who are campaigning on behalf of a candidate are subject to the same rules as the candidate. Violations of any of the election rules outlined in this constitution or implemented for a specific election by a candidate's volunteer will have the same effect as if the candidate violated the rule themselves. These violations by a volunteer can result in action being taken by the CRO against the candidate, up to and including disqualification of the candidate.
- (f) Candidates are permitted to introduce themselves to classrooms / academic sessions during class time based on the following:
 - (i) The professor or instructor approves the introduction.
 - (ii) The introduction is no longer than two (2) minutes in length.
 - (iii) Candidates do not directly solicit votes during classroom talks; rather, they may only encourage students to vote.

- (g) Campaign speeches will occur during the campaign period only for the President and Vice President Internal positions.
- (h) The CRO and/or DRO shall preside over the speeches, and question period following the speeches.
- (i) If the candidate is not present, his or her speech can be read aloud by the CRO.
- (j) Speeches may be no longer than five (5) minutes and will be followed by an open Question and Answer period for each position, each capped at twenty (20) minutes in length.
- (k) Questions can be taken from the floor during the question period or can be submitted anonymously to the CRO, to be read aloud by the CRO.

8.18 Voting Process

- (a) All CSA Elections will be conducted by electronic voting method. Only the CRO and DRO may have access to set up and monitor the electronic voting system during the course of an election.
- (b) The CRO must use the electronic voting platform provided by UMSU unless it is not available or not suitable. A successful vote brought by motion at a duly convened CSA General Council Meeting at least two weeks prior to the voting period will allow a different platform to be used for a given election.
- (c) President, VPI, and Advocacy Representative candidates running uncontested shall be elected by a “yes”/”no” vote. Successful candidates must receive at least one hundred (100) “yes” votes and at least 75% “yes” votes.
- (d) First Year Representative candidates running uncontested shall be elected by a “yes”/”no” vote. Successful candidates must receive at least fifty (50) “yes” votes and at least 75% “yes” votes.
- (e) Voting for all contested positions shall be conducted using instant-runoff voting. For each position, voters will rank their choices in order of preference.
- (f) Vote counting for contested President, VPI, Advocacy Representative positions will be conducted electronically as follows:
 - (i) Ballots are initially counted for each elector’s top choice.
 - (ii) If a candidate secures more than half of the votes in the first round, the candidate wins.
 - (iii) If a candidate does not secure more than half of the votes in the first round, the candidate in last place is eliminated and removed from consideration.
 - (iv) The highest-ranking remaining choices are then counted again.
 - (v) The process repeats itself until one candidate receives more than half of the votes in a particular round.
- (g) Vote counting for contested First Year Representative positions will be conducted electronically as follows:
 - (i) Ballots are initially counted for each elector’s top choice.
 - (ii) If a candidate secures more than half of the votes in the first round, the candidate wins.
 - (iii) If a candidate does not secure more than half of the votes in the first round, the - candidate in last place is eliminated and removed from consideration.

- (iv) The highest remaining choices are then counted again.
 - (v) The process repeats itself until only three candidates remain. At this point, the two candidates with the highest number of votes will win the election.
- (h) The CRO shall call a meeting with the CSA Elections Committee no later than 5:00 PM on the day of conclusion of voting to review and confirm campaign expenses and the election results with the CSA Elections Committee ("Election Results Meeting"). Once confirmed, all candidates must be invited into the Election Results Meeting to announce the results. Detailed vote counts for each round of counting may be disclosed; however, this information must remain confidential with the CRO, DRO, Faculty Advisor(s), and candidates, indefinitely.
 - (i) The election results shall be communicated to all CSA Members within twenty-four (24) hours of the closing of voting period. The information must be communicated as deemed appropriate by the CRO before the candidates are allowed to disclose the results to others outside of the room.
 - (j) Candidates may designate one (1) individual to attend the Election Results Meeting on their behalf by submitting a written document signed by the candidate and the individual to the CRO twenty-four (24) hours before end of the voting period.

Election results must remain secret until close of the election period. No person, including the CRO is permitted to view the results prior to the close of the voting period.

8.19 Grievances and Complaints

- (a) All grievances and complaints shall be directed in writing to the CRO. Upon receipt of a complaint, the CRO shall determine the appropriate procedure for investigating the merits of the grievance or complaint.
- (b) Where the CRO determines that the rules established by the CRO or the rules outlined herein have been violated, the CRO shall, using the demerit system found in section 8.20 of this constitution, determine the appropriate remedy, including disqualifying the candidate responsible for the violation.
- (c) Complaints regarding the CRO or the fulfillment of their duties shall be directed to the CSA Elections Committee. The CSA Elections Committee shall then review the complaint and determine the appropriate remedy (if necessary).

8.20 Demerit System

- (a) The following demerit system may be used to assess penalties against candidates who violate rules outlined in this constitution. For offences committed by a volunteer(s) resulting penalties will be given, in full, to each candidate. The following values are merely guidelines. The CRO retains full discretion to substitute other values or penalties as they see fit.
 - (i) Candidates who receive 50 or more demerits are disqualified.

- (f) All students who apply for the Executive Council must be students in Good Standing with the Asper School of Business, who will not graduate before April the following year.

9.02 CSA General Council Recruitment

- (a) An applications committee shall be formed consisting of all members of the Executive Council and the Faculty Advisor, who serve as a non-voting member to appoint candidates for all appointed positions on the CSA General Council ("General Council Recruitment Committee").
- (b) The Faculty Advisor may appoint a designee to serve on the General Council Recruitment Committee on their behalf if they are unavailable to do so.
- (c) All members of the General Council Applications Committee must be present at each interview unless approved by the committee.
- (d) Applications for the appointed positions of the CSA General Council shall be called for and publicized by the incoming Executive Council with the assistance of the outgoing President and VPI.
- (e) If a vote is required to select an appointed member of the CSA General Council, each member of the General Council Applications Committee, except for the faculty advisor, shall have one vote. If after failing to reach a consensus in the event of a tie, the President shall have the deciding vote.
- (f) The General Council Applications Committee shall have filled all appointed positions and notified all Members of the appointments prior to the end of the third week in March except in the case of exceptional circumstances.

- (g) Applications shall be called for again for any position which is unfilled at the end of the recruitment period, within three weeks of returning to the university in the fall. The call for applications may take place during the summer.

Article X. Tenure of Office

10.01 Tenure

- (a) Each elected member shall hold office from April 1st of their incoming year to March 31st of the following year.
- (b) Members not on council at the time of the first meeting of the new council shall hold office from the time of their appointment or and acceptance to the council until the following March 31st.
- (c) Tenure of any appointed CSA Executive Council or CSA General Council Member may be temporarily suspended at any time as deemed necessary by the President.
- (d) Tenure may be terminated by resignation or removal as set out in section 11 of the Constitution.

Article XI. Resignation and Vacancies

11.01 Resignations

- (a) Any resignation or removal from office of a member of the CSA Executive Council or CSA General Council shall be signed, written, and submitted to the President, who shall present the resignation to the CSA Executive Council. In the case of the resignation of the CSA President, the resignation shall be submitted to the Faculty Advisor and VPI.
- (b) The CSA Executive Council shall report to the CSA General Council and shall select a replacement for an appointed position through a method deemed appropriate by the CSA Executive Council, or shall call a by-election if the position, other than President and VPI, is an elected position.
- (c) If any elected CSA General Council member does not return for the fall term for any reason, the CRO shall, within 3 weeks of the start of the Fall term, conduct a new election.
- (d) In the event of the resignation of the President, the VPI shall assume the office of the President. The remaining CSA Executive Council will appoint a new VPI.
- (e) In the event of the resignation of the VPI, the remaining CSA Executive Council will appoint a new VPI.

11.02 Absences

- (a) In the case of the temporary absence of the President, the VPI shall assume the responsibilities of the President. Should the VPI be unable to assume the position, it shall pass to the VPF.

Article XII. Suspension and Removal

12.01 Removal of President or Vice President Internal

- (a) A formal motion for the removal of the President or VPI can be brought if the President or VPI has failed to perform the duties of their office and a petition is brought forward to the CSA General Council containing the signatures and student numbers of at least two hundred fifty (250) CSA Members.
- (b) A three quarters vote of all CSA General Council is required to pass a motion for the removal of the CSA President or VPI.
- (c) A successful motion to remove the President or VPI shall trigger a by-election for the election of a new President or VPI (depending on the position that was removed). The respective member who was removed is not barred from running in the by-election.
- (d) If the President or VPI is removed under section 12.01 of this Constitution, they are ineligible to run for any elected position or be appointed to any position of the CSA for a one year period (up to and including the General Elections in the next year).
- (e) Section 12.01 (d) shall not apply if the member is successfully re-elected to the position they were removed from in the by-election following their removal.

12.02 Removal of any CSA Executive Council Member or CSA General Council Member (Excluding the President, VPI, Advocacy and First Year Representatives)

- (a) The CSA Executive Council may, by motion at a duly convened Executive Council meeting, remove any CSA Executive Council Member or CSA General Council Member who has:
 - (i) Failed to perform the duties of their office, or
 - (ii) Misstated their good academic standing and/or registration status within the I.H. Asper School of Business.
- (b) Two thirds of the vote of the CSA Executive Council is required to pass a motion for the removal of any CSA Executive Council Member or CSA General Council Member (excluding the President, VPI, First Year Representatives, and Advocacy Representatives).
- (c) If a CSA Executive Council Member or CSA General Council Member is removed from the CSA General Council under any procedure in this section 12.02 they are ineligible to run for any elected position or be appointed to any position of the CSA for a one year period (up to and including the General Elections in the next year).

12.03 Removal of Advocacy Representative

- (a) Removal of the Advocacy Representative will follow the Senate governing document for Senator removal, which is governed by the 'Provision of the University of Manitoba Act Respecting Election of Students'.

12.04 Removal of First Year Representatives

- (a) A motion can be brought to the Executive Council to initiate the removal of a First Year Representative if the individual in question has failed to perform the duties of their office.

- (b) Prior to the motion being presented, the CSA Executive Council shall offer a thirty (30) day probationary period to the First Year Representative in question. The CSA Executive Council must provide support to the individual during this period.
- (c) For a First Year Representative, three quarters of the vote of all members of the First Year Committee and a majority vote of the CSA General Council at a duly convened CSA General Council meeting is required to pass a motion to initiate removal proceedings.
- (d) The successful removal of a First Year Representative shall trigger the appointment of a new First Year Representative, appointed by the remaining members of the First Year Committee and the CSA Vice President Internal.
- (e) If a First Year Representative is removed from the CSA General Council under any procedure in section 12.04 (a)-(c) he or she will be unable to run for any elected position for a one year period or be appointed to any position of the CSA (up to and including the General Elections in the next year).

12.05 Removal Based on a Violation of the Code of Conduct

- (a) Upon a violation of the CSA Code of Conduct by a CSA General Council Member other than a Advocacy Representative, the CSA Executive Council shall have the authority to suspend the CSA General Council Member in question. Section 12.03 outlines the removal process for a Advocacy Representative.
- (b) Upon violation of the CSA Code of Conduct by a CSA Executive Council member other than the President and VPI, the other members of the CSA Executive Council as a group shall have the authority to continue the removal process. Section 12.01 outlines the removal process for the President and VPI.
- (c) The remaining CSA Executive Council Members shall have the power to use their discretion on the handling of the Code of Conduct violation, including a formal warning, reduction in responsibilities, or removal from the CSA Executive Council.
- (d) The Executive Council may, by motion at a duly convened CSA Executive Council meeting, remove any CSA General Council Member who refuses to sign the CSA Code of Conduct. The CSA General Council Member has an obligation to sign and submit the Code of Conduct within one (1) week of receiving it.
- (e) Upon the decision to remove a CSA General Council Member, the President and/or the VPI shall meet with the respective member and inform him or her of the decision.
- (f) Upon the removal of a CSA General Council Member based on a Code of Conduct violation, the CSA Executive Council shall notify CSA General Council of this decision within 24 hours after any appeal has been rejected.

12.06 Appeal of a Removal based on a Violation of the Code of Conduct

- (a) Appeals may be submitted by any CSA Executive Council Member or CSA General Council Member who has been removed based on violation of the CSA Code of Conduct within 24 hours of notice of removal.
- (b) The removed member shall notify the CSA Executive Council that they wish to appeal their removal by submitting written positions to the CSA Faculty Advisor in favour of their positions within seven (7) days of the notification to the CSA Executive Council.

- (c) The Faculty Advisor shall then meet with the removed member and the CSA Executive Council separately to hear arguments in favour of both parties' positions.
- (d) The final decision shall then lie with the CSA Faculty Advisor, who shall submit written decisions for their reasons to uphold the decision of the CSA Executive Council, or to return the removed member to the CSA General Council or CSA Executive Council.

12.07 Disqualification

- (a) Any member who is removed from the CSA General Council or CSA Executive Council under sections 12.05 and 12.06 of this Constitution is ineligible to run for any elected position for a one (1) year period or be appointed to any position of the CSA (up to and including the General Elections in the next year).
- (b) Section 12.07 (a) of this Constitution shall not apply if the member successfully wins their appeal and is not removed from the CSA General Council or CSA Executive Council as per section 12.06 (d) of this Constitution.

Article XIII. Transitions

13.01 General Council

- (a) For the purpose of continuity of Council and to aid CSA Executive Council and CSA General Council members in the performance of their duties, upon entering and continuing through his or her term of office, each member of the CSA Executive and CSA General Council shall maintain an accurate and detailed set of files, which shall be submitted at the end of the year and stored in the CSA Office. These files may be referred to by successors for the purposes of maintaining continuity.
- (b) The files for each member to record include, but are not limited to, all budgets pertaining to the member's activities during the term in office, all programs and schedules pertaining to the member's activities during the term in office, all materials created during the term in office and any additional relevant information to decisions made by the member during their tenure.
- (c) At the end of each CSA Executive Council and CSA General Council Member's tenure, a transition report must be prepared and provided to the incoming members of their respective position no more than two (2) weeks after the transition has occurred. The report shall include a description of duties and how these duties were accomplished, an analysis of problem areas or difficulties encountered in the performance of duties, and recommendations and suggestions containing any other information that may guide or assist the successor in the performance of their duties.
- (d) Each Committee (standing or ad-hoc) of the council shall keep records which shall include minutes of all meetings, and any additional information relevant to the committee's performance of duties on behalf of the council. This includes items such as promotional material and any other files.

Article XVII. Finances

17.01 Budgets

- (a) The VPF shall prepare, in consultation with the CSA General Council Member or CSA Executive Council who requires funds for the purpose of executing their prescribed role, a budget for the implementation of the programs which they intend to carry out during their term in office.
- (b) All expenses outside of the prepared budget must be approved by the VPF prior to the expense being incurred. If the additional expense is not approved, The CSA General Council Member or CSA Executive Council may not be reimbursed.
- (c) Once finalized, budgets are binding, and any excess costs must be approved by the VPF. This involves the following implications:
 - (i) Each budget line must be used for the prescribed expense and may not. Be used to cover excess costs for other expenses.
 - (ii) Excess expenses under $500 CAD must be approved by the VPF prior to being incurred.
 - (iii) Excess expenses over $500 CAD must be accompanied by a written budget proposal. The proposal must lay out the requested amount of cash, the reason for the excess cost, and a rationale for how the line item enhances the student life at Asper or strategic vision of the CSA.

17.02 Budget Procedure

- (a) The main budget process shall take place by the end of May.
- (b) The budget procedure shall be as follows:
 - (i) The VPF shall conduct a thorough analysis of events and expenses from previous years with the objective of building a holistic view of the CSA's operations.
 - (ii) The VPF shall meet with the President and VPI to discuss any financial strategies or plans for the upcoming year.
 - (iii) The VPF shall prepare the first-stage budget for each individual event and service.
 - (iv) The VPF shall meet with general and executive council member(s) to review the preliminary budget for events and/or services which they are responsible for. Feedback should be considered when drafting the final budgets, and council members should have the opportunity to make suggestions that will enhance the student experience. Portfolio Vice Presidents must provide their consent for any expenses incurred by their portfolio members.
 - (v) The VPF shall prepare a final budget, which will include the feedback from general and executive council members.
 - (vi) The final proposed budgets for the coming year and actual income statement from previous year will be distributed to the CSA Executive Council for consideration.
 - (vii) The proposed budget must then be ratified by a successful vote of the CSA Executive Council.

17.03 Additional Budget Details

- (a) The budget shall be made available to any CSA Member upon request. The CSA Member must make an appointment with the VPF to review the budget, as opposed to budget being sent, circulated, and reproduced.

- (b) All accounting records must be kept up to seven years in the event of a Federal Audit.
- (c) All funds to be distributed to other student organizations shall be administered by the CSA Executive Council.
- (d) Any charitable donations made by the CSA must be from revenue generated from council activities, not from student fees, as approved by the CSA Executive Council.
- (e) All expenses incurred by CSA General Council members or volunteers under their direction must be approved by CSA Executive Council Member who leads the portfolio to which they relate. Expenses incurred by CSA Executive Council members must be approved by the President. Expenses incurred by the President must be approved by the VPI. Expenses which are outside of the budget must be communicated to the VPF prior to approval by any other CSA Executive Council Member as per section 17.01 (b) of this Constitution.

17.04 Bank Account

- (a) For the purpose of handling funds, a bank account shall be maintained each year in the name of the CSA. The VPF, President, and VPI shall be the joint signing officers, with two out of three signatures being required.
- (b) Cheques made payable to one of the three signatories must be signed by the remaining two signatories.
- (c) Interac e-Transfers are not to be used due to the restriction that requires two signatories on payable transactions.
- (d) Bank reconciliations are available to be viewed by CSA General Council members upon submitting a written request to the CSA Vice President Finance.

Article XVIII. Accountability and Contracts

18.01 Signing Authority

- (a) The legal signing authority for contracts of the CSA is the President. All CSA contracts must be signed by and approved by the President. The positions that the contract applies to still have input and can make recommendations; however, the contract must be approved and signed by the CSA President.
- (b) Any permits, including liquor or other, which are required for an event, must be signed by the President. Where additional signatures are required, the CSA Executive Council member whose portfolio the event falls under must sign. In the case of additional signatures being required, the CSA General Council Members who are responsible for the event should also sign the permits. If there are any personal issues that make any of these unable to sign the permit, they may be excused from this duty by approval of the CSA Executive Council. The President must sign; the additional CSA Executive Council Member and CSA General Council Member(s) may be excused. Other CSA Executive Council Members must sign in the place of the excused signatory or signatories.

18.02 Corporate Relations

- (a) Corporate Partner's Program (CPP)
 - (i) The CPP is a package that includes all the eligible CSA and STAG events along with the different partnership levels and amounts available, which will be pitched to the corporate partners by the MCRs.
 - (ii) In order for an event to be considered for the CPP, it must have run successfully for three (3) consecutive years and a CPP entry must be submitted including details such as, but not limited to the event name, location, date, number of attendees, event description, etc.
 - (iii) All event planners will be required to attend a meeting scheduled by the VPCR where they will pitch their event to the corporate relations team.
 - (iv) The VPCR is responsible for deciding which events will be included in the CPP in consultation with the CSA President.
- (b) Do Not Contact List
 - (i) The purpose of the Do Not Contact List is to ensure a centralized process of communicating with corporate partners.
 - (ii) Only the Corporate Relations portfolio has the authority to contact companies indicated in the Do Not Contact List.
 - (iii) Those interested in contacting a company in the Do Not Contact List, must reach out to the VPCR and follow the procedures laid out in the CSA Corporate Relations Communications Guidelines document.

Article XIX. Referendums

19.01 Mandate of Referendums

- (a) By way of motion, the council may from time to time refer matters relating to the CSA to CSA Members through a referendum, in which a simple majority is necessary for a decision.
- (b) Referendums shall be binding to the Council.

19.02 Referendum Procedure

- (a) Arguments for both sides of the referendum shall be publicized for at least fourteen (14) days prior to the vote. This shall be in the form of posters and any other methods deemed appropriate by the CRO.
- (b) The referendum will be conducted by electronic voting method. Only the CRO may have access to set up and monitor the electronic voting system during the course of a referendum.
- (c) The CRO must use the electronic voting platform provided by UMSU unless it is not available or not suitable. A vote brought by motion at a duly convened CSA General Council Meeting may allow a different platform to be used for a given referendum.
- (d) The CRO shall obtain a list of current CSA Members to be included as eligible voters.
- (e) Each CSA Member is entitled to one vote.
- (f) The referendum polls shall be open from 9:00 am on the first of two (2) consecutive days of voting and close at 4:00 pm on the second of two (2) consecutive days of voting.
- (g) Any CSA Member who is currently enrolled in one or more classes, including students who are employed on a co-op term confirmed through the Asper Co-Operative Education Program or are currently studying out of the country through the Asper Exchange Program are eligible to vote.
- (h) Each side of the referendum may designate one (1) scrutineer by submitting a written document signed by the candidate and the scrutineer to the CRO twenty-four (24) hours before the start of the voting period. The scrutineer may be present at the polling station during voting hours but may not in any way discuss either side of the referendum while doing so.
- (i) The CRO shall call a meeting with the President, VPI, and CSA Faculty Advisor(s) at 4:30 pm on the day of conclusion of voting to review and confirm the results. Once confirmed, a representative from both sides of the referendum must be invited into the room to announce the results.
- (j) The referendum results shall be communicated to all CSA Members within twenty-four (24) hours of the closing of voting period. The information must be communicated as deemed appropriate by the CRO before the results can be disclosed outside of the room.

Article XX. Amendments

20.01 Amendment of the CSA Constitution

- (a) The repeal, amendment, or re-enactment shall be submitted to the CSA Executive Council who shall report to the CSA General Council on wording of the proposed change.
- (b) A Motion of Amendment for the CSA Constitution must be passed by a 60% majority vote of the CSA General Council. No such repeal, amendment, or re-enactment shall be accepted if it is contradictory to the intent of the council.

20.02 Notice of Motion for Amendment to the CSA Constitution

- (a) A Notice of Motion for Amendment to the CSA Constitution must be given to the CSA General Council 14 days in advance of any vote on the proposed motion of amendment. The actual motion does not need to be presented to the council; however, information in regard to the content of the amendment(s) must be provided, as well as notice of intention to bring a motion to amend the CSA Constitution.

20.03 Constitutional Review

- (a) At least once every year, Constitutional Review will be a topic on the CSA General Council Meeting Agenda. This can occur at any meeting of the year and shall be used to discuss the Constitution and any need for change in the Constitution. This does not necessitate any amendment, but a discussion on review must occur.
